No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (Public Law 107-110)

August 2018

Dear Parent or Guardian:

As a provision of the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (Public Law 107-110), the Francis Howell School District is required to inform you of certain information that you have the right to know related to your child's education.

All school districts are required to provide to you in a timely manner the following information:

- Whether the teacher has met state qualification and licensing criteria for the grade levels and subject areas in which the teacher provides instruction.
- Whether the teacher is teaching under emergency or other provision status through which state qualification or licensing criteria have been waived.
- Whether your child is provided services by paraprofessionals and, if so, their qualifications.
- What baccalaureate degree major the teacher has and any other graduate certification or degree held by the teacher, and the field of discipline of the certification.

In addition to the information that parents may request, districts must also provide to each individual parent:

- Information on the achievement level of the parent's child in each of the state academic assessments as required under this part; and,
- Timely notice that the parent's child has been assigned, or has been taught for four or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified.

Respectfully,
